

Icebergers Safety Plan

Please note for your own safety, the following safety plan while the channel is being dredged and the inner landing is being replaced.

- The boating channel is closed weekdays until further notice.
- The barges replacing the landing can move without notice. Please swim south of the pier before the landing area as shown.

There will be regular updates as the work progresses. Hopefully completed before long.