

Jock Sturrock Mementos

These are a mix of mementos from Jock's Americas Cup campaigns and the many international campaigns he undertook in 5.5s and the other boats he raced. Annotations have been provided by Sir James Hardy as well as others.

- 1, 8 - USA Olympic badge – may have been swapped at one of the games Jock sailed in
- 2, 13 - New York Yacht Club burgee - the defenders in Jock's Am Cup challenges
- 3, 6, 26 - Rhode Island Red chicken, the state symbol of Rhode Island, home of the America's Cup till 1983
- 4, 5 - Rhode Island pins by Danecraft, a Rhode Island jeweller. Their website notes " Mr. Primavera Sr, an artisan designer and craftsman, made jewellery for the royal families of Pescara, Italy before his immigration to America. In 1934 he founded and established Danecraft in Providence Rhode Island, producing the most intricate and highest quality products in the industry,"
- 7 - Lobster or shrimp. Typical east coast US fare
- 9 - NZ Sailing Association
- 10 – San Francisco Cable car
- 11, 15 – Americas Cup
- 12 – a US memento
- 14 – Newport founding memorabilia
- 16 – Crest of Royal Norwegian Yacht Club
- 17 -California memento
- 18 – English lion

19 – tie pin (origin unknown)

20 – tie pin (origin unknown)

21 – US Eagle blazer buttons

22- This is a memento of a schooner called Bluenose II which is a replica built in Nova Scotia in 1963 of a famous old Nova Scotian racing schooner called Bluenose which won lots in the 1920s/30s. The boat is on the Canadian dime.

23 - A gimbaled globe with the seas "dominant" - suitable choice for a sailor

24 - A 12 metre with a separate rudder and an Aussie flag on the genoa. The separate rudder came a bit later. So, a memento from the 70s or later.

25 – dual star of David (origin unknown)

27 – Pins from Montreal expo (1967)

28 - Royal Melbourne Yacht Squadron, from the heat of Australia's first Am Cup challenge via the RSYS

29 – Canadian bicentennial pin (1967)

30 - Viking ship? Provenance unknown

31 - Flag of the Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club which is one of the older yacht clubs in the Western Hemisphere. Based on New York.

32 - A Norwegian memento - regatta or Olympics swap?

33 – Yacht club burgee (unknown)