L to R Paul Woodman RSQAA, Aiden O'Connell, Edward Dukes, Eddie Barron and Colin Burgess?

On Behalf of the RSQAA, Congratulations to our winners and place getters. Thank you to RBYC members and volunteers, Rod McKenna RO and Regatta Manger Colin Burgess and his staff for a well-managed regatta. Thanks to all the team managers and participants who have travelled from all states of Australia to support the Stonehaven Cup Regatta now in its 97th year.

We say, thank you for your participation, to those youth sailors who will now graduate from their respective Quest programs to join adult sailing classes.

The RS Quest dinghy is now the national training class. Over thirty yacht clubs and sailing organisations around Australia have purchased more than 200 dinghies.

The Navy Cadets currently operate more than 45 Quest dinghies within their many Cadet training centres (flotillas) around Australia and have placed orders for another 100 dinghies. We anticipate 30 Quest dinghies will attend the 97th Stonehaven Cup Regatta to be hosted by RMYS next January 2027. The 100th Stonehaven Cup Regatta will be Hosted by RBYC in 2030.
